Dear Amanda,

Every month in 2017 we worked hard for you, for our country and for women to take power. 3,186 women to be exact.

In 2017, we worked hard to make our country better by increasing women in power, training 3,186 women on how to run and win public office. Take a look at what we've achieved together. Then, take a moment to make an end of year donation to VoteRunLead so we can reach 8,000 women trained in 2018.

Yes, I want to make a donation to VoteRunLead

Your end of year donation is 100% tax deductible and will help us train 8,000 women next year. Your donation of \$20, \$50 or \$500 means more women in power in 2018.

Thank you,
All of us at VoteRunLead

In January, we marched with VoteRunLead members in 6 states,

In February, VoteRunLead launched a national call and received over 300

In March, for Women's History Month, we named 20 women who could be our next president in 2020.

PLATE TO POLITICS

In May, Plate to Politics reached over 150 women farmers and food activists to run, focusing on rural women's leadership.

YOUR 2018 CAMPAIGN

In April, Run As You Are was born, transforming what it means to run and win, just as you are.

June kicked off the Run As You Are National Tour training over 750 women in person at 14 locations in six months.

July launched our partnership with United State Of Women, with 1000 women in Chicago galvanized and ready to lead!

In August, VoteRunLead alum Representative Ilhan Omar graced the cover of Time Magazine, a "first" changing the world.

This September, we stood side-by-side with moms and elected officials who won't put up with discrimination.

The October issue of Marie Claire featured our poll, our alumnae and so much more!

In November, we met a major milestone with 10,000 women saying yes to running for office, signing up for workshops, trainings and more.

December saw 3 more VoteRunLead women run and win in Georgia's special elections, bringing our win rate to 70%!
